2023 Budget Message

From County Administrator Robbie Levalley

November 15, 2022

TO: Delta County Board of Commissioners

RE: 2023 Proposed Budget

This budget was prepared by County Elected Officials and Department Heads and reviewed, revised, and assembled by the Administration Office, in conjunction with a countywide interdepartmental budget team, and under the supervision and guidance of the Board of County Commissioners. This budget reflects the projected spending plan of the County's Elected Officials, Department Heads, outside agencies, and other public entities.

The total expenses for the county budget is $54,226,108 which is a significant increase when compared to the 2022 adopted budget. The primary reason for the increase is the major construction projects scheduled for 2023, voter approved Public Safety tax, implementation of the use of American Rescue Act dollars, grant funding, and continual delay in capital purchases due to nationwide supply chain issues. Major changes for the proposed 2023 budget include budgeting for the renovation of the detention facility, sheriff office construction, purchase of the Brown Building, additional staffing requests, and capital items that were not successfully completed in 2022. The focus continues to be maintaining essential services and adhering to our philosophy of conservative budget practices.

The financial operations of the County accounted for in funds in accordance with Colorado State Law and the resolutions of the incumbent Board of County Commissioners and previous Boards. The budget is balanced, as required by Colorado Revised Statues 29-1-103, in that no budget adopted shall provide for expenditures in excess of available revenues and beginning fund balances. The 2023 recommended budget is focused on managing increasing needs, preserving services for citizens, and providing a fiscally responsible County budget. Each fund is a separate and legal fiscal entity. The combination of the various funds determines the total county budget.

Government funds are reported using the current financial resources measurement focus and the modified accrual basis of accounting. Under this method, revenues are recognized when measurable and available as net current assets. Expenditures are recorded when the related fund liability is incurred, except for claims and judgments, and compensated absences, which are recognized as expenditures to the extent they have matured. General capital asset acquisitions are reported as expenditures in governmental funds. Acquisitions under capital leases are reported as other financing sources.

Having a solid reserve and conservative budgeting practices has allowed Delta County the opportunity to address renovation of the detention facility, sheriff's office construction and finalizing the library project. The County has achieved these, and many other accomplishments, in spite of nearly a decade of volatile revenues. Census data indicates slight increase in population listed at 31,196 according to Census data.

MISSION STATEMENT

To provide a safe and healthy community for present and future generations by providing equitable and quality service to the public, by treating one another with respect and dignity, and by acting with fiscal responsibility.

MAJOR ACCOMPLISHMENTS FOR THE 2023 BUDGET

- Delta County is seeing increases in sales tax and an improving local economy.
- Continued funding for economic development in key areas that will result in long term benefit for Delta County. Investment in One Delta County with personnel and operating expenses will address long term continued investment in economic development. Delta County will be funding the full cost of the One Delta County Director, providing office equipment and location and administrative support.
- Due to rising inflation, all Delta County employees will receive a 4% Cost of Living Adjustment. Delta County will continue to cover the entire cost of employee insurance at the PP07 level. In addition to address employee retention Delta County will increase the employer share of employee plus spouse, children, and family match. Health insurance employee benefit is a total annual cost of $2,314,455 to Delta County.
- Continued capital and sales tax dedication to Delta County Libraries of $50,000 and $87,877, respectively.
- Additions of full time FTEs are added to address specific needs for the Human Resources, Office of Emergency Management, Public Works, and Human Services.
- Funding of the One Delta County position in partnership with Delta County business community and all of the municipalities in the county.
- Public Sales Tax Initiative is a stand-alone fund to accurately account for expenditures, revenues and results.
- American Rescue Act will partially fund the renovation of the first and second floor of the detention facility.
- Capital Improvement funding of major construction projects which will include finalizing the Delta library, renovation of Delta County detention facility and Sheriff's office renovation.
- Delta County has been successful in obtaining significant grant to support recreation projects, infrastructure and economic development.
- Veterans Affairs program has seen additional expansion of program.

MAJOR CHALLENGES FOR THE COUNTY

- Inflation continues to impact residents of Delta County and supply chain issues for all supplies, parts and equipment ordered by Delta County.
- The economy both locally and at the state level is starting to slow down. The 2023 budget reflects a continued conservative approach to funding all of the state mandates.
- Economic Development. There is a continuing need to diversify and strengthen our current economic base.
- Revenues. Assessed valuation decreased slightly, therefore in 2023, the mill levy will decrease from a cap of 18.057 to 16.407.
- The rate of increase for sales tax revenue is slowing down when compared to previous years. This was anticipated as the rate of growth has been historically above average. Delta County in anticipation of the slowing economy will budget a flat sales tax revenue for 2023.
- Residential rate assessment rate is steady at 7.15%.
- Public Safety Funding. Demand for public safety in all areas (including Sheriff, District Attorney, and Criminal Justice Services) continues to increase and reflects trends noticed nationally and at the state level.

2023 REVENUES:

Property taxes:

Property Tax revenue for 2023 is projected to be $4,660,988 for the General Fund. The 08/15/22 "Certification of Values" from the County Assessor's office shows that the net total assessed valuation of taxable property has decreased by .48% over the past year. State law says that property tax revenues can increase a maximum of 5.5% over the previous year's limit. Taxpayer Bill of Rights (TABOR) says that the allowable increase in property taxes from year to year is equal to the percentage change in local growth plus the change in inflation. Required practice in Colorado prescribes that the county choose the more restrictive of the 5.5% statutory limitation or the TABOR limitation. Based on preliminary calculations, 5.5% statutory is the more restrictive limit for 2022 property tax revenues.

The projected increase in the rate of inflation (based on the Consumer Price Index) is 8.0%.

Based on TABOR limitations, property tax revenues in 2022 cannot exceed $6,218,510 therefore the 2022 budget reflects a temporary reduction of 2.779 mills in the mill levy.

Sales Tax:

In 2022 Delta County experienced sales tax revenue increases of approximately 6.97% when compared to the 5-year rolling average. Lisa Tafoya, County Treasurer projects sales tax collections for General Fund, Capital Improvement Fund, and Public Safety to be $ 9,400,000.

Phone: 970.874.2102

Fax: 970.874.2114

For 2023 budget purposes, the 2023 Delta County Sales Tax projections will reflect a 0% increase over 2022.

Fee increases:

Increases for fees and charges will be an increase in the 911 monthly charges on landlines and cell phones. Delta County is currently at a $1.00 per phone per month and the county will go through the statutory process to potentially raise the fee $1.70 per phone per month. The increase in fees will address the mandatory console upgrades that occur every five years and the anticipated cost of each console is listed at $600,000.

The increase for the Landfill fees is to address increasing fuel costs and future expansion costs. The only increase to fees and charges for services in this budget is in the Landfill budget in the Enterprise Fund. The justification for these increases is increasing operational costs and anticipated additional costs when the future expansion occurs. Under new regulations, the landfill is required to line each new cell with a manufactured liner. The Enterprise Fund will need to increase the reserve balance to pay for additional costs to the future cell expansion.

We continue to focus on our community and local economy by providing a strong foundation for the local economy and economic development initiatives. Through the Capital Improvement Plan, critical projects such as roads and bridges and improvements to the Courthouse campus complex will improve and maintain the infrastructure of our economy and allows Delta County to adhere to state unfunded mandates.

Additional Revenues:

PILT $ 955,024 Payments in Lieu of Taxes (PILT) are the dollars actually received in 2022. A one-time congressional PILT payment of $983,035 will be allocated to the renovation of Delta County Detention facility.

HUTF $ 3,002,988 which is $139,103 increase over 2022 in Highway User's Tax

Fund.

Summary Revenues:

Total budgeted revenues for 2023 are $42,613,866.

EXPENDITURES:

The recommended appropriations as detailed in the individual department and fund accounts reflect investments in Delta County. Expenditures for all funds are projected at $54,226,108.

Expenditures exceed revenues by 11,612,242. Expenditures will be addressed with reserve balances.

Phone: 970.874.2102

Fax: 970.874.2114

Personnel:

All Delta County employees will receive a 4% Cost of Living Adjustment and the proposed budget reflects that additional increase. Delta County received a 2% increase in insurance costs and in 2023 will increase the employer match for employee plus children, employee plus spouse, and family insurance costs. Delta County Human Resources has conducted a preliminary salary survey and compared Delta County Employee salaries with surrounding counties and counties of similar size and general fund revenues. Department heads and elected officials have requested additional merit increases and this budget reflects the merit increases. Additional staff are requested in the 2023 budget including road and bridge, human resources, and office of emergency management.

Long Term Debt-Lease-Purchase Agreement (See Exhibit A).

Equipment Lease-Purchase Agreements

The 2023 budget for the Enterprise Fund which accounts for the operation of the County's landfill and transfer station provides for a 5-year lease purchase agreement for the purchases of a compactor and scraper for the Adobe Buttes landfill as more specifically outlined in Exhibit A.

Conclusion

I want to acknowledge the hard work and effort of County staff, in all departments, in preparing the 2023 budget. Department heads and elected officials in Delta County are diligent in their management of existing budgets, and conservative in projected budgets. More information about what was proposed and included in Delta County's 2023 budget is available at www.deltacounty.com and is available in hardcopy at the Delta County Administration building located at 560 Dodge Street.

Robbie LeValley
Delta County Administrator

2023 Budget Memo

Date: August 30, 2022

To: County Commissioners and County Managers/Administrators - Delta, Gunnison,

Hinsdale, Montrose, Ouray and San Miguel Counties, via e-mail to County

Managers and Administrators

From: Seth D. Ryan, Esq. District Attorney, Seventh Judicial District

Re: Office of the District Attorney, 7th Judicial District: 2023 Proposed Budget

Dear Commissioners and Managers:

We respectfully submit our proposed 2023 budget. This budget represents an increase of 12.72% in requested county funds from 2022. The funds requested are necessary for the following reasons:

Labor Supply Shortage 2022:

For all intents and purposes, the District Attorney's Office is a law firm. Labor constitutes 92% of our expenses. Without labor in the form of attorneys, legal services specialists (legal secretaries), and victim services specialists (victim's advocates) we cannot function.

In our budget memo from 2021 we anticipated that our office would be required to fill 2 to 3 vacant attorney positions. In actuality, we filled 6 vacant attorney positions. This constituted a turnover of 43% of our attorney staff. Due, in part, to the changing social perceptions of our criminal justice system and the historically low unemployment rates in the U.S., the last two years have posed significant challenges in recruiting qualified attorneys. Although we posted positions with the Colorado District Attorney's Council; the two Colorado law schools; the Colorado Bar Association; and specialty bar associations like the Sam Cary Bar for African American lawyers, the Hispanic Bar Association, the Woman's Bar Association, both Asian bar associations, and the Indian Bar Association; we received no applications. We eventually found success by posting at out of state law school career centers and national searches via on-line employment recruiters.

This year, all twenty-two district attorney's offices across the state were looking for both entry level and experienced prosecutors. A majority of positions listed remained open for 6 to 9 months without being filled. Data gathered from employment listings show that the average salary for an entry level county court prosecutor is $71,000 to $79,000 per year and the average salary for starting district court prosecutors is $84,000 to $104,000 per year. This constitutes a 9% increase in salaries historically paid by our office for entry level county court prosecutors and a 13% increase in salaries historically paid by our office for starting district court prosecutors. This is the competition we are encountering to obtain and retain qualified attorneys.

These increases were not limited to the metropolitan districts who typically have more resources to attract qualified candidates. Our most direct competitor is Mesa County in the 21st Judicial District. They have been a major force in driving up the cost of prosecution labor on the western slope. Their published job posting salaries for county court prosecutors' range between $75,000 and $107,000, with advertised ranges for district court positions being $88,000 to $145,000. This is a 15% and 18% increase respectively above what we have traditionally paid. At the beginning of 2022 we lost several potential candidates to the 21st District simply because we were not equipped to match those salaries. Additionally, we have had to significantly increase the salaries of some of our most experienced deputies in order to avoid them migrating to the 21st District.

In order to hire and retain qualified attorneys, it was necessary to increase almost all attorney salaries during 2022. Due to vacancy savings, we were able to accomplish this without asking our counties for additional funds. The percentage increase of our budget includes increases given in 2022 at full staffing levels for the entire year 2023.

Caseloads and Criminal Case Filings:

As mentioned above, we replaced 43% of our attorney staff in 2022. With a change in our organizational culture to promote courage and accountability, this was not unexpected. The amount of turnover and the difficulty finding qualified candidates, however, was surprising. The U.S. unemployment rate as calculated by the U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics is at a historic low of 3.5%. This has contributed to what has been coined as the great resignation. District Attorney Offices across the country are experiencing these effects. According to an April 2022 Reuters article titled "Prosecutors wanted: District attorneys struggle to recruit and retain lawyers," social justice concerns and the overheated private attorney labor markets have made it extremely difficult to recruit and retain qualified prosecutors. We have attached a copy of that article to this memo as Exhibit 1.

The American Bar Association Standard 3-1.8(a) recommends that "[a] prosecutor should not carry a workload, by reason of its excessive size or complexity, interferes with providing quality representation, endangers the interests of justice in fairness, accuracy, or the timely disposition of charges, or has a significant potential to lead to the breach of professional obligations. A prosecutor whose workload prevents competent representation should not accept additional matters until the workload is reduced and should work to ensure competent representation in exiting matters. A prosecutor within a supervisory structure should notify supervisors when counsel's workload is approaching or exceeds professionally appropriate levels." Studies recommend that prosecutorial caseloads should not exceed 150 cases for felonies and 400 cases for misdemeanors.

During 2022 we saw caseloads of approximately 850 cases per FTE in county court, and 231 cases per FTE in district court in our busiest jurisdictions. This was 100% and 50% over recommended caseloads. This contributed to sustained and high stress levels, burnout, and repeated cycles of resignations and hiring. Fortunately, as of August we managed to fill all vacant positions, thereby bringing our caseloads across all jurisdictions to manageable levels. Before this, staffing was reaching critically low levels such that we were beginning to be unable to effectively handle all the cases in all the courts in our district with the attorney resources available.

Between 2020 and 2021 we saw felony filings decrease 5% and misdemeanor filings increase by 11% district wide. In 2022 we anticipate both felony filings and misdemeanor filings to remain the same from 2021. Although district wide, our filings have remained relatively flat for the past two years, some jurisdictions have seen significant increases. From 2021 to 2022, filings in San Miguel County increased 28% for felonies and 14% for misdemeanors. During that same period in the west end of Montrose County, filings increased 158% for felonies and 103% for misdemeanors. Our office has typically staffed the west end out of the San Miguel office, but because of the increase in those caseloads, that is no longer possible. Additionally, our office has typically staffed Ouray County with either a county court deputy and/or a district court deputy from Montrose. This has created scheduling challenges and prioritization inefficiencies. The budget for 2023 includes a full time FTE dedicated to cover Ouray County and the west end of Montrose.

While we saw small decreases to flat trends in felony filings from 2020 to 2022, we have seen significant increases in the seriousness of felony filings in that same period. In 2022 we saw a 32% increase in violent crimes from 2019 and 2020. While we only had 4 homicide related cases between 2019 and 2020; we have filed 10 homicide cases in 2021 and 2022 to date. In other words, despite the reduction in felony filings, we are still working at capacity.

Legal Services and Victim Services Labor Costs:

At the end of this year, one of our most efficient and experienced legal services specialists will retire after over 16 years of service. She is assigned to handle Montrose County Court, the busiest court in our jurisdiction. She handles an average of 1,800 cases per year. This is more than double the average caseload of legal services specialists in our other jurisdictions. It is neither realistic nor sustainable to expect a new and less experienced person to handle this volume of cases. Accordingly, the 2023 budget includes hiring an additional legal services FTE to cover the Montrose County Court caseload.

In addition to historically low unemployment, 2022 has also seen a significant increase in inflation. Our 2023 budget contemplates a 9% cost-of-living increase¹ for victim services and legal services specialists. This is necessary to not only compensate for record levels of inflation but to ensure that staff, that we have carefully trained in this specialized field, do not seek more profitable employment elsewhere.

The District Attorney's Office acknowledges and takes seriously the role of our counties and county commissioners as fiduciaries for our citizens' tax dollars. To that end, we have consistently and aggressively sought other funding sources via grants. Our primary source of this funding comes from the federal Crime Victim's Services Grant encompassing VOCA (Victims of Crimes Act), and VAWA (Violence Against Women Act). We have also applied for and received funding from local VALE (Victim Assistance and Law Enforcement) monies. These grants are extremely competitive and require significant monitoring and auditing. Despite CVS having less available funds for 2023, our office was fully funded. Additionally, we were able to access federal American Rescue Act Plan funding to help alleviate the shortfall in our local VALE funds. Nearly half of the cost-of-living increases for victim services wages will be covered through these grants.

Our victim services division has a proven track record of providing a high level of services to the victims of crime in our communities. Our goal in 2022 was to provide services to 969 victim's rights clients. In the first six months of this year, we provided services to 992 victims, this included 428 domestic violence victims and 163 child abuse victims. We anticipate we will surpass our 2022 goal by 80%. Our office contacts Victim's Rights Act victims in less than 24 hours after a case is filed. This is one of the lowest response rates in the state. Not only has our victim services division become a model for our ability to quickly connect with crime victims, but it has also been highlighted by the Colorado District Attorney's Council as providing exceptional services to people from all backgrounds and walks of life, including

48 Hour Bond Bill:

In 2021 the Colorado General Assembly passed HB21-1280 requiring that all arrested persons be advised and have a bond setting hearing within 48 hours of their arrest, regardless of whether the 48-hour deadline falls on a weekend or holiday. This went into effect in April of 2022. To comply, our office is required to have an attorney, and a legal service/victim services staff member available on weekends and holidays to prepare for and attend these hearings. This has increased our labor costs in the form of overtime pay for our hourly employees.

Increase in Medical, Dental, Vision Benefit Allowance:

Our office utilizes the same medical insurance benefit plan as offered through Montrose County. As part of this package, employees are given a benefit allowance to help cover the cost of medical, dental, vision, and other health related benefits. Our budget contemplates an increase to this benefit allowance equal to what we estimate Montrose County employees will received in 2023.

Prosecutors wanted: District attorneys struggle to recruit and retain lawyers

Local prosecutors are resigning at record numbers while fewer new law graduates are applying for those jobs

Lower pay, high caseloads and skepticism about the criminal justice system are contributing to prosecutor shortages

(Reuters) - District attorneys' offices across the U.S. are struggling to recruit and retain lawyers, with some experiencing vacancies of up to 16% and a dearth of applicants for open jobs, according to interviews with more than a dozen top prosecutors and five state and national prosecutors' associations.

The district attorneys said the effects of the COVID-19 pandemic and increasing concern about racial inequities in the criminal justice system — compounded by long-standing issues with relatively low pay and burnout — have made a career as a state prosecutor a tougher sell in the past several years.

"We're seeing a prosecutor shortage throughout the country; it's not limited to large jurisdictions versus small jurisdictions," said Nelson Bunn, executive director of the National District Attorneys Association, a trade group with 5,000 members.

MOUNTING VACANCIES

The number of applicants to prosecutor positions in San Diego County — which has the second-largest district attorney's office in California at 330 lawyers — fell 28% between 2019 and 2021, according to chief deputy district attorney Dwain Woodley.

In Utah, open positions in the Salt Lake County District Attorney's Office are hovering between 21 and 25 in an office that should have 133 lawyers, and attorneys in its special victims' unit are handling double the number of cases recommended by the American Bar Association, District Attorney Sim Gill said.

"Crime has not dissipated in any significant way to offset the backlog," Gill said.

Staffing shortages are affecting prosecutors' decisions about whether to bring certain criminal cases to trial, according to Anthony Jordan, president of the District Attorneys Association of the State of New York.

"We don't get to choose the crimes that come in," said Jordan, who is the district attorney in Washington County, New York. "But if you don't have enough people to prosecute them then you have to let certain ones go."

Data from the Maricopa County Attorney's Office in Phoenix, Arizona illustrate that challenge. The number of cases the office prosecuted dropped from nearly two-thirds of felonies referred by law enforcement in 2018 to under half in 2020. And the number of vacancies in the office of 338 attorneys continues to rise — increasing nearly 53% between July 2020 and April 2022.

In New York, the pandemic-driven challenges have been exacerbated by an added paperwork burden resulting from recent changes to the laws governing discovery — the pre-trial process of evidence-sharing, said Darcel Clark, Bronx District Attorney, in a statement. That has led to an exodus of prosecutors in several counties, whose departures were first reported by The New York Times.

The 94 federal prosecutors' offices haven't seen the same declines in applicants and increases in turnover during the pandemic, a U.S. Department of Justice spokesperson said. Assistant U.S. attorney positions are often viewed as stepping-stones to highly paid private-sector jobs.

'PART OF THE PROBLEM'

Prosecutors typically earn less than private-sector lawyers, but the public service aspect of the job, the relatively good work/life balance, and the ability to gain trial experience early on — an opportunity new lawyers at large firms rarely get — have for decades helped district attorneys' offices attract lawyers.

My View Following Saved

As a result of the pandemic, many early-career prosecutors spent far less time in the courtroom due to widespread court closures. And, when courts began to reopen, the prioritization of more serious cases reduced trial opportunities for less-experienced prosecutors. Mecklenburg County District Attorney Spencer Merriweather, whose district includes Charlotte, North Carolina, said he has lost several recent hires over a lack of trial time.

Meanwhile, a red-hot legal hiring market has widened the pay gap between prosecutors and private-sector attorneys. According to a report from the Association of Prosecuting Attorneys, the average salary for entry-level state prosecutors in 2020 was $68,056. Starting salaries for associates at large law firms have soared to $215,000 as of January.

And, some district attorneys say heightened awareness of the racial disparities in the criminal justice system in the wake of the 2020 police murder of George Floyd have altered how many people perceive prosecutors.

District Attorney Brian Mason, whose office serves two counties north of Denver, was hoping that access to the outdoors and what he describes as a commitment to criminal justice reform would help fill the 10 new job openings he posted in August to reduce the strain on the office's 80 lawyers. But, he never received more than one or two applications for any of the positions, he said.

"We have to overcome the perception that the DA's office is part of the problem and convince people that we are actually part of the solution," said Mason, who is the brother of Reuters White House correspondent Jeff Mason.

As of late March, Mason still hadn't filled all the vacancies.

(CORRECTION: A previous version of this story misstated the decline in applicants for prosecutor positions in San Diego County.)

SPOTLIGHT ON VICTIM SERVICES

They're the unsung heroes of the criminal justice system: victim's advocates, or victim service providers. They're the ones behind the scenes working to make sure the victims are being taken care of and the process is running smooth for prosecutors. They help people from all backgrounds and walks of life, including immigrants from all around the world.

In the 19th Judicial District, Victim Witness Assistant Amanda DeMint said they have a large Spanish speaking population, and six of their eight advocates speak Spanish and English. There is also a heavy immigrant population because of the JBS meatpacking plant in Greeley that specifically takes in asylum speakers, many from Africa.

"We get a lot of Burmese immigrants, some of them speak Karenni. We get a lot of Somalians, so we are really well-versed in using the LanguageLine (a phone interpreting service). We also work closely with the Weld County global refugee center," DeMint added, saying that's a great asset in not only providing interpretation but reassuring victims they can trust the system.

"Because it's not just interpretation. There's such a cultural issue we have to overcome. A lot of them are really hesitant to speak with us, even if they're here on asylum visa. They're absolutely terrified something's going to happen to affect their visa," DeMint said.

Andrea Hernandez is one of the Spanish speaking victim witness assistants in Weld County. She really enjoys working with teenagers and shared one story of working with an LGBTQ+ teen, His mom was worried because he had changed his story several times.

"I had to talk her off the ledge like, look- he's a kid, it's so normal for him to change his story because he didn't want anybody to know what he's doing," Hernandez said.

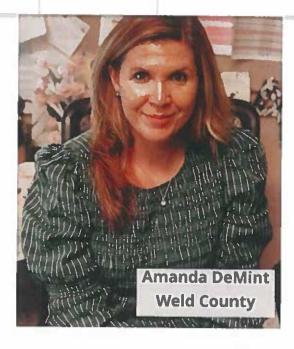

She said she doesn't coddle her victims or witnesses. She does what she can to make them strong so they can look back one day and say, 'I was strong and got through that really difficult time.'

In the 7th Judicial District on the Western Slope there are six counties that are all different, including Gunnison, Ouray, and San Miguel. Victim Services Supervisor Aimee English said they have a diverse group of women, one in each county, some wearing multiple hats. One of them is a Spanish monolingual, multicultural outreach victim service provider. They send letters to Spanish speaking victims and witnesses in the language they speak and attend events to reach at-risk communities and teach them about their rights.

They have a Cora speaking population, a tribal dialect often confused for Spanish, and have a Karenic speaking population of migrant workers in Delta. They try to have an interpreter in person, which isn't always easy, one pastor helps out occasionally, and they use the LanguageLine as needed.

Aimee English shared one story that changed her perspective and led her to better teach her advocates to listen to understand and not rush to judgement.

Years ago she had a victim of a minor domestic violence incident. The couple was from South Africa and spoke English but didn't know the language very well. The man got arrested and put in jail.

"She (the victim) came into my office and she was hysterical that he was in the jail, and (she wanted to know) how she could make sure he was getting fed. So, I sat down with her and she said 'she needed to get him out of the jail as soon as possible.' And I said 'let's talk about why you need to get him out of the jail.' She explained to me (that she was worried) the tigers were going to get him," English had no idea what she was talking about.

The victim explained in the small village where they came from, the jail was in a pit with a wire over it and the tigers could go down and get the inmates.

Families also had to bring them food and water.

English explained how our jails provide meals, medical services, they have beds, tv, access to a library and defense services.

The victim started crying and asked if she could go stay in the jail too.

That's when she knew this woman needed more resources, including food and shelter.

"I'll remember that story the rest of my life," English said.

She said it's so important to always listen to understand and work to find out what the victims' immediate needs are because they may not be apparent at first.

When it comes to connecting victims with resource agencies that can help with food and shelter, it's real easy to just give them a phone number, but that doesn't always lead to them making a call. In person introductions can make all the difference as they know in the 21st Judicial District of Mesa County.

Director of Victim Services, Jennifer Lucero, said they do soft handoffs about twice a month with their local domestic violence safe house director.

"We are giving services in the same place at the same time. And we are familiar faces to our domestic violence victims, so we have the ability to do a soft handoff, instead of just saying 'hey, go call this person, they'll help you.' We're actually going to do it together," Lucero said that makes a huge difference in the victims getting the help they need.

Allison Boyd, the Director of the Victim Witness Assistant Unit in the First Judicial District, oversees 19 advocates and more than a dozen other roles. Her district, which includes Jefferson and Gilpin counties, is smaller in size but larger in population and has an older population as well.

"By its nature victim services are often working with underserved and vulnerable populations, because comprehensive research shows that those are the populations that are often targeted for violence," Boyd said, "Those populations include women, children, persons of color, people who don't have access to the same sort of resources that more privileged people may have access to. People who speak other languages, that don't have English as their first language."

Boyd said as we continue the conversation about victim services and how to reach everyone, we also need to make sure they are included in larger conversations. She wants to see more leadership and more victim service representatives on state boards. She wants to make sure victims' voices are also heard when decisions are being made that could directly impact them.

The advocates say it's fulfilling work, and when a victim comes back years down the road to say 'thank you for standing up for me when I was weak,' or 'pushing me when I was difficult', it makes it that much more rewarding to know their daily work does make a huge difference in people's lives.

"I can't think of any other job where you get to get up in the morning, look in the mirror and know you're going out to do the right thing. To make this world truly a better place," DeMint said.

"It's like we're out to go fight the good fight, you know, and we may get our butts kicked all day long

CONGRATULATIONS

Congratulations go out to Judge Gary Jackson!

He's being inducted into the Denver Public Library's distinguished Blacks in Colorado Hall of Fame. Judge Jackson is the first former prosecutor to be inducted. He was a Denver deputy DA from 1970 to 1974. He said this will make his Black History Month very special.

The ceremony is happening virtually Saturday, February 5th. You can register to attend the event here.

Re: Budget Item for "2023 Budget" Hearings

Drug Free Delta County (DFDC) would like to request $15,000 for 2023. DFDC continues to move forward with their mission and believes the community as a whole is benefitting from the services provided by this non-profit. Drug Free Delta County's Mission states, "To create a safe and healthy community for present and future generations through the provision of effective, affordable and accountable community substance abuse treatment, prevention education, enforcement and recovery support services." DFDC has continued to make a difference in the lives of those who are struggling with substance abuse in our county.

So far in 2022 DFDC served over 70 individuals per month through our programs including educational self-sufficiency classes focused on job readiness, parenting and anger management, sober social activities, substance use disorder therapy, alumni groups, accountability testing and case management. DFDC continues to strive for a reduction in the continuous harms created by substance abuse and dependance. Our greatest accomplishments are always when a family is re-united with a now sober loved one, when children get their parents back and no longer live in fear and uncertainty, and when Client's find themselves sober, stable and productive.

Our hopes for 2023 include increasing our self-sufficiency programs to include general life skills such as budgeting, planning, attending appointments, paying bills, eating healthy and affordably and daily stress reduction. We have seen the need and been asked by several organizations within the community for programs that help teach these basic and yet fundamental skills. We will also continue forward with the programs we are currently implementing. By helping to support this program you will not only be restoring lives and reuniting the families of those affected by substance abuse, you will also be receiving a long-term savings with regard to incarceration, court costs, and foster care expense.

Respectfully Submitted,

Mariah Emond, Chairman

Glossary

Adopted – Adopted, as used in the department and division summaries within the budget document, represents the budget as approved by the Board of County of Commissioners.

Allocation – Funds that are apportioned or designated to a program, function, or activity.

Assessed Valuation – A valuation set upon real estate or other property by a government as a basis for levying taxes. The County Assessor determines the assessed valuation of residential and commercial property as a percentage of its actual value and the statutory assessment rate.

Budget – The County operational and functional plan balancing expenditures for a fiscal year with the expected income or revenue for the fiscal year. A budget identifies the various programs, goals, activities, expectations, and results/benefits.

Expenditures – The use of financial resources for the operations of the County. Each expenditure results in a decrease in net financial resources. They include such items as employee salaries, operation supplies and capital outlays.

Fee – A charge levied to a user of a specific good or service in direct exchange for that good or service.

Fund – Each individual fund is a separate accounting entity having its own assets, liabilities, revenues and expenditures. County financial resources are allocated to and accounted for in individual funds based on legal or administrative restrictions or requirements.

Grants – Contributions from another government, private or non-profit entity. Grants are generally to be used or expended for a specific purpose, activity, or facility.

Intergovernmental Revenue – Revenues levied by one government but shared on a predetermined basis with another government or class of governments (grants, loans, vehicle/highway tax, etc.).

Mill Levy – Rate by which assessed valuation is multiplied to determine tax rate. A mill is 1/10 of one cent or $1.00 of tax for each $1,000 of assessed value.

Restricted Fund Balance – amounts constrained to specific purposes by their providers (such as grantors, bondholders, and higher levels of government), through constitutional provisions, or by enabling legislation.

Tax Increment Financing (TIF) – Tax increment financing may be used in accordance with Colorado Urban Renewal Law. In such cases, tax bases can be frozen for a period of time whereby incremental taxes in excess of the frozen base are typically used to provide redevelopment.

Taxpayers' Bill of Rights (TABOR) – Colorado voters passed the TABOR Amendment, which was approved by voters in 1992, limits the amount of revenue the State of Colorado can retain and spend. Specifically, TABOR allows the state to retain and spend an amount based on the prior fiscal year's actual revenue or limit, whichever was lower, grown by Colorado inflation and population growth and adjusted for any "voter-approved revenue changes."

Transfer Payments – The transfer of money from one fund to another.
